

Advanced Standing

Students who have previously completed a master's degree in a related area may be eligible for Advanced Standing. Advanced Standing allows coursework from a previous master's degree to satisfy up to 30% of the credit requirements in the Sage program, if the program director determines the previous coursework to be acceptable demonstration of program competencies.