

ABA 520 : Interventions in Autism

This is typically the second course in the sequence of studying children with autism. In this course, general approaches from psychiatric, medical and educational models are examined as related to the treatment of autism.