

ABA 609 : Diversity in Education

This course is devoted to the study of diversity, specifically with how it relates to education. The course will cover information related to diversity issues for the student population and the educator population. Course content will include strategies for communicating with and supporting diverse populations.

Prerequisites

ABA 501 , ABA 502