

ABA 620 : Test Strategies

This course provides students with specific strategies and content for preparing for and taking the certification exam by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board. Students will be guided to develop a personalized study plan that focuses on the task list content for which they will be responsible on the exam.