

EDL 756 : Doctoral Research II: Problems of Practice

This course leads candidates to the finalization of individual candidate doctoral research projects with a particular emphasis on summary of findings, conclusions, and recommendations. Candidates will exhibit the ability to critically and comprehensively examine an important problem, contribute to organizational change, and improve district performance. In consultation with doctoral research committee chair and members, candidates will submit the results of their individual doctoral research as per the format outlined in the Russell Sage College Educational Leadership Research Handbook.
