

EDU 572 : Assessment Approaches

This is an introductory course in educational assessment and evaluation. It examines issues pertaining to the interpretation of school-wide, classroom, and individual assessment information. Specific topics include principles and concepts in assessment, standardized testing, performance-based and teacher made assessment strategies.