

EDU 574 : Reading and Writing in the Content Areas

Methods and materials for delivering content area instruction through reading and writing are examined. Instruction design that develops literacy skills and broadens and enriches student learning of academic subjects is explored. Fieldwork required.