

HSA 558 : Budgeting and Finance for Government, Nonprofits, and Health Care

This course explores the development and application of budget theories and principles, examines and evaluates the formats used to create and present budgets, and considers cost analysis in a budgeting and program context with attention to the relevant accounting process. Topics include planning, program design, taxation, health provider reimbursement, facilities and grants.