

MTA 512 : Methods in English Education

This course helps students employ content specific pedagogical strategies to meet the New York State Learning Standards for English. Exploration and utilization of best practices in teaching content while addressing diversity in the classroom are included, for example, student-centered activities, principle uses of technology, interdisciplinary problem solving and assessment strategies. 25 hours fieldwork.