

MTA 578 : Effective Teaching for All Learners

This course surveys the theories and practices of collaboration in secondary schools, with emphasis on autism, inclusive practices and instructional design. Methods for working with a range of team members as well as the goals for teaming are explored (e.g. co-teaching, designing activities for the diverse classroom, developing authentic partnerships with parents conducting effective meetings.) Fieldwork required.

Prerequisites

EDU-574