

PAD 558 : Budg & Fin for Govt/Nonp/Hlth

The course develops the evolution of budgeting in the public and health sectors. The course presents applications of budget theories and principles. It covers the formats used to create and present budgets. The course develops cost analysis in a budget in program context with attention to the accounting processes attached to cost analysis. Topics include planning, program design, taxation, reimbursements for health providers and facilities, and grants.