

SPS 529 : Foundations of Professional Coaching

Professional coaching has become a growing market in today's professional landscape. As professionals we will examine and apply goal- centered coaching models, methods, and competencies from the International Coaching Federation. Students will have opportunities to practice and develop their skills through a focus on the eight core coaching competencies from the International Coaching Federation.

Credits 3