

PTY 623 : Foundations of Physical Therapist Clinical Examinations

This course develops the skills of interviewing and clinical screening as the basis of physical therapist examinations. The fundamental examination skills as they apply to all practice settings and patient or client populations are introduced. The course is only open to students enrolled in the DPT program.

Credits 1