

EDA 605 : Developing Purpose-Driven Professional Communities

This is the sixth course in the sequence and it is designed to aggregate knowledge of leadership practices with leadership of the curriculum and supervision of teaching and learning. This system perspective of a department or school will be the foundation of developing continued venues for professional learning that is directly tied with the needs of learners or faculty and staff, this course prepares leaders for PSEL Standard 7: Professional Community for Teachers and Staff.

Credits 3