

EDA 608 : School District Leader

The emphasis of the course is on district level leadership. It is designed to shape and assess the abilities of potential leaders to analyze, strategize, implement and follow-up, individually and in groups with respect to the problems faced by school district leaders in a variety of settings. Another focus will be on interacting effectively with school board members, community, and parent groups, underserved and= unserved constituencies, teacher and administrator organizations at all levels, and political leaders having an impact on the resources and/or the mission of the school district. Upon completion students will acquire the knowledge, dispositions and skills necessary to perform the functions of the chief executive officer and instructional leader of a school district.
