

Tuition

Tuition charges are not refundable. Adjustments for withdrawals and other circumstances can be found in the Adjustments for Tuition, Room and Board Charges section. All graduate students pay tuition per credit hour based upon the program in which they are matriculated. Graduate tuition is charged based on the program rates noted below, regardless of individual course registrations. Summer tuition rates are published each spring prior to course registration. During summer sessions all students pay tuition per credit hour according to the level (undergraduate and graduate) and discipline of the course.
